Bulletin from the Board- Steve Weinstein

Reflections...

As we enter the home stretch of another fiscal year at Congregation Kehilat Shalom, I wanted us all to reflect on and celebrate just some of the many accomplishments that we as a community achieved this past year:

- a) Addition of 9 new families to our community
- b) Switch of Hebrew School from twice a week to Sundays only
- c) Re-signing of Rabbi Susan's contract through June 2011
- d) A Balanced budget (not a small feat given these economic times)
- e) Dedicated advertising campaign to get the word of CKS out to the community at large
- f) New Kehi-loft space and programming
- g) Adult Ed (Interfaith Life, Leading Services, Watermarks – Greta W. Staton)
- h) Torah Rededication
- i) Lt. Ken Elgort "Jewish Life During Wartime" Open Forum
- j) Shabbat Across America

In speaking for the entire Board, I would like to thank all of you for your support, dedication and sense of community that has infused our Congregation with a new spirit and energy. It is because of your involvement, whether leading activities or attending them, that has invigorated the community, attracted new members and created an environment of Jewish culture and learning of which all of us and our children can feel proud.

So, as each of us prepares for the end of school and our summer activities, please enjoy, be safe and keep looking for opportunities in which to lead or to simply get involved and help continue to strengthen our Jewish community at CKS.

And, in speaking with you as the CKS Financial Secretary, please remember to pay any outstanding dues by May 15th and outstanding pledges before June 15th to allow us to close out our 2009 fiscal year and be ready for an exciting 2010. And, in speaking with you as an Education Committee member, for those with children in Hebrew School, please remember to return your 2010 Hebrew School registrations to help us plan accordingly for the next school year.

All the best,

Steve

Message from the Rabbi

SHAVUOT – OUR TURN TO HEAR GOD’S VOICE

At the moment of Revelation at Mount Sinai, the ancient rabbis teach that the whole world was silent – not a bird chirped, not an ox lowed nor lion roared, not even an angel dared flap its wing. The voice of the Holy Blessed One, the rabbis continued, was heard from one end of the earth to the other. Each utterance was divided into 70 parts, transmuting each word into the 70 known languages of the world. Moreover, the people Israel, standing at the foot of the mountain, momentarily lost their souls and died upon hearing God’s voice so that the angels had to hug and kiss them, and God kept gently speaking to them words of love until their souls returned and they revived. Finally, the Torah itself reports that the people witnessed the lightning and saw the thunder coming from the mountain in a jumble of senses merging into some unique form of discernment.

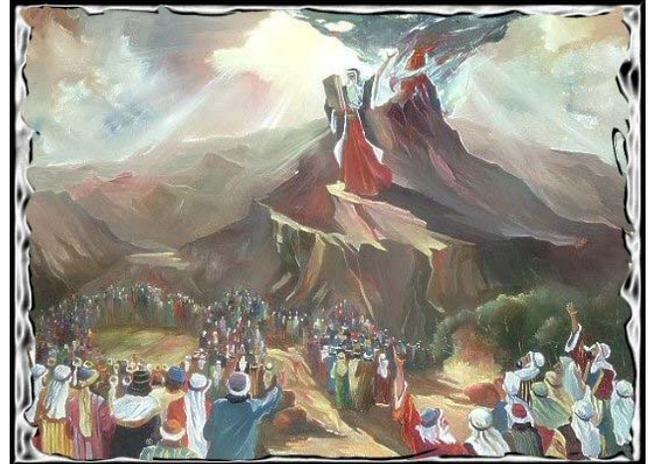

What does it mean for an entire community to experience a collective revelation? Is there some form of madness involved? Or, can a community connected by a common bond or purpose see and hear and sense things that no single individual can alone? Here at CKS, we know that we can laugh together, grieve together, learn together, worship and celebrate together. Can we hear God’s voice together?

In the sixteenth century, the Jewish mystics of Sfat developed the tikkun leyl Shavuot (the repair for the eve of Shavuot), the custom of staying up all night on Erev Shavuot studying in order to prepare for the moment of Revelation the following morning. This month, on May 28th, we at CKS will celebrate Shavuot, the time of Revelation at Sinai, together as a community with our own tikkun leyl. There will be learning and crafts for the kids followed by an intensive study for adults. And, as is customary on Shavuot, there will be ice cream (and other dairy products) for all!

The Jewish mystics say that on each Erev Shavuot, the heavens open up for a single moment and God’s word is spoken anew. In every generation, each of us stands at Sinai. It is our turn to hear God’s voice – and to attempt to discern with all our senses the meaning of our traditions. So come and celebrate the important festival of Shavuot, zeman matan Torah, the time of the giving of Torah, and see what is revealed to you as you gather with your community.

B’shalom uvracha,

Rabbi Susan

This month the fifth graders finished and presented their "Tour of Israel" projects.

The fifth through seventh graders learned a sixth trope, T'veer. I am delighted that the trope program has been embraced by our teenagers and students alike.

The entire school enjoyed making Macarons with Josh. They were so yummy. Please check out the website for the recipe.

The entire school also enjoyed the Passover program designed and orchestrated by Robynn Mann and the sixth grade. There was a station on Matzah and how it is made.

Another station enabled students to create a Miriam's or Elijah's cup.

A third station had younger students listening to the story of Passover and older students heard a story of a modern day exodus from Ethiopia.

A fourth station taught about the four cups of wine. The fifth station taught about the seder plate and had students create a seder plate.

Kehi-Loft students were kept busy in late March/April with an assortment of activities. There was an evening of socializing in late March in which the students were able to relax, talk, have fun, and listen to music in their own space. We were happy to see some of the students who have not been able to attend the Wednesday sessions back once again at the weekend session. April has two special activities scheduled - the car wash and a guest speaker.

The Kehi-Loft students will once again be holding a car wash to raise funds for the CKS community. The car wash is scheduled for Sunday morning during the Open House on April 26 from 9:00 to noon. Almost all the students who are not working at the Hebrew School that day have volunteered to lend a hand at the car wash. Thanks to all who participated!

The second special activity is the communication workshop by guest speaker, Tamara Jacobs. Ms. Jacobs has volunteered to lead a workshop that will focus on how to present yourself in front of a group or in an interview. She will work with the students on first impressions and image, communication skills, and the importance of how a person looks, sounds, and organizes their conversation. She will teach the class the art of impressing and persuading in a variety of situations. The workshop promises to be fun, fast paced, and informative. Ms. Jacobs is an internationally renowned communication expert who as been improving the presentation and communication skills of successful professionals across the country for over 15 years. Many thanks to Lisa Kent for arranging and assisting with this workshop.

Wednesday's sessions for this month have focused on prejudice, specifically anti-gay bias. In a series of classes, the students and I discussed a wide range of issues that fall under this category. To open the discussion the students answered a questionnaire from Teaching Tolerance that asked them if they agreed or disagreed with a series of statements, such as, "There are gay people in every city in the US," "I have never thought about how gay people might be treated unfairly," and "If I found out that one of my friends was gay, I'd be okay with it." We explored what it means to be "normal", who defines normative behaviors in society, and what can happen to those who are considered outside the norm. Students gave examples of the results of such biases and mentioned the Holocaust, slavery, women's inequality, as times in our history when one group oppressed another. We also talked about gay marriage and the recent death by suicide of an 11 year old boy who was repeated bullied at school for being homosexual, even though he did not identify as gay. Several of the students intend to participate in the 13th annual Day of Silence that illustrates the silencing effect of bullying and harassment on the LGBT community. We also discussed way homophobia affects "straight" people by straining family and community relationships and how it can hurt a straight person if they "appear to be gay." The rabbi will conclude this conversation with the students in May.

In other news, the Kehi-Loft students will again welcome the 7th grade class to one of their Wednesday sessions. On May 6th the 7th graders are invited to join the older students for a taste of the high school program. They will begin with a pizza dinner, of course! Then the Kehi-Loft students will talk with the 7th graders about the program, play ice-breaker games, and invite the 7th graders to join them in September.

Below is the schedule for May:

Wednesday, May 6 - 7th graders are invited to join Kehi-Loft from 6:00 - 8:00

Friday, May 8 - Kehi-Loft students will lead their final service of this school year

Wednesday, May 13 - Kehi-Loft - discuss plans for next year, including possibility of having Kehi-Loft on two Wednesdays and two Sundays of each month

Wednesday, May 20 - last class at local restaurant (tentative plan)

A group of students will be attending the play, Irena's Vow, in NY on Saturday, June 20. Tom or Barbara Berger and I will chaperone.

Thanks to all the parents who purchased pizza this month - Susan Waskow and Tom Berger. Also many thanks to Sherri Kurtz who provided tuna salad and egg salad for the class during Passover. It was delicious on matzo!

Shalom,

Karen Fridkis, Kehi-Loft chair

GETTING TO KNOW....

Audrey & Sol Starkman

Written by Audrey

Family

We have been blissfully wed for 21 years but we both tried before and failed. Sol and I have 3 children. Our eldest, Sabrina is a 20 year old sophomore at the University of Maryland. She is majoring in psychology. Arielle is almost 19. She is a freshman at the University of Delaware with a major in elementary education. David turns 15 in June. He's a freshman at Montgomery H.S. He was the J.V. goalie for ice hockey this year and he is also very interested in robotics and fast expensive cars. We have traveled extensively as a family and enjoy laughing at our misadventures.

Occupation

Audrey – a preschool teacher at Montgomery Kid Connection for the past 12 years. Before that, 20 years in retailing.

Sol – high school teacher of engineering, CAD & robotics

Community Activities

As a family, we have been going to Acorn Glen, an assisted living residence in Princeton, each Friday night for over 6 years. We say the Shabbat blessings with the Jewish residents and also help with special holiday dinners for Rosh Hashanah, Chanukah and Passover. This has been an amazing journey for our family. It began when Sol's father was living there and we were doing a Mitzvah for Arielle's Bat Mitzvah. Sadly, he is gone, but we continue. While the children were going through Hebrew school, I spent many years as class parent and ran many Purim carnivals with the family as assistants. I also was a trustee on the board for 1 term.

Hobbies

Audrey – collecting clocks, salt and pepper shakers, menorahs and unusual artifacts from our travels

Sol – being a wise consumer of industry....he's a great shopper

Motto

Audrey – Out of bad comes good.

Life is short...seize the moment.

Laughter is the best medicine.

Sol Life is too short to always be serious.

K.I.S.S. - Keep it simple stupid.

Bad Habits

Audrey – none???????????

Sol – Harold's corned beef and pastrami sandwiches

Favorite Movies

Audrey – Fiddler on the Roof, Funny Girl, West Side Story, An Officer and a Gentleman, Birdcage

Sol – School Ties, Stand and Deliver, Men of Honor

Favorite TV Shows

Audrey – Desperate Housewives, Grey's Anatomy and home design shows

Sol – NCIS, Monk, News, Soap and financial news programs

Favorite Music

Audrey – James Taylor, Sting (the Police), Michael Buble, jazz

Sol – the best of the 60's and 70's

Favorite Books

Audrey – Harry Potter series, Rashi's Daughters, books by John Grisham

Sol – The World is Flat and lots of newspapers

Favorite Foods

Audrey – falafel, good Chinese food, pizza, dark chocolate

Sol – crusty Italian bread from Brooklyn, pomegranates, Chinese food, corned beef

Best Childhood Memories

Audrey – dancing on my father's feet after dinner, sleep away camp, playing catch with my father at Jones beach

Sol – summers in the Catskills

If I Had More Time

Audrey & Sol – TRAVEL, TRAVEL, TRAVEL and the opportunity to do it at off peak travel times...we will need to wait for retirement also Broadway shows and museums
