HIGH HOLIDAY SCHEDULE

Rosh Hashanah

Sept. 8 Erev Rosh Hashanah Service 7:30 pm

Sept. 9 Rosh Hashanah 1st Day Service (free tickets required) 9:30 am

Children's Service (concurrent with morning service) 11:00 am

Tashlikh Hike to Pike Creek (dress for hiking) Literally "casting", tashlikh is a lovely ceremony carried out on Rosh Hashanah during which we "cast away our sins" by throwing breadcrumbs into a running body of water. Here at CKS, we are fortunate enough to be able to hike on our own property to Pike Creek. This is a wonderful, short, fun, and meaningful ceremony for adult and child alike. At the conclusion of tashlikh, the shofar is blown. 4:15 pm

Sept. 10 Rosh Hashanah 2nd Day, Non-Traditional Service 9:30 am

Yom Kippur

Sept. 17 Kol Nidre Service (free tickets required) 6:30 pm

Sept. 18 Yom Kippur Morning Service (free tickets required) 9:30 am Alternative to morning service. Led by Peggy Fass. Meet at the Laurel Avenue parking lot for the Rocky Hill Canal. Casual hiking dress. 10:00 am

Children's Service (concurrent with morning service) 11:00 am

Yizkor Service:A memorial service on Yom Kippur that calls to mind our deceased loved ones through the recitation of special prayers, such as Mourner's Kaddish. Members at CKS have the option of listing their loved ones whose names are then read during the course of the service. Yizkor services are also traditionally held on Sukkot, Passover and Shavuot. 1:00 pm

Non-Traditional Avodah Service followed by Neilah Service The word "Avodah" in this context refers to worship in the form of sacrifices or offerings that were performed in ancient times in the Temple in Jerusalem. In those days, the High Priest performed a special sacrifice on Yom Kippur and made a full range of confessions on behalf of all the people. Today, naturally, we no longer make sacrifices. We still, however, have offerings to make to God, to each other, and to ourselves. As we did last year, we will hold a non-traditional Avodah service on Yom Kippur afternoon, during which you may bring in your own personal offerings – poems, stories, artifacts, songs – that convey the spirit of the High Holidays: teshuvah, return, repentance, forgiveness, and so on.

Neilah is the final service of Yom Kippur during which our last round of confessional prayers are recited. The ark remains open and we stand (if we are able) throughout most of this deeply spiritual and moving service. Here at CKS, we dim the lights, allowing the words and music to wash over us as we turn inward one last time. The service concludes when the sun has set with a final, long shofar blast. 4:45 pm

Shofar blowing (Break Fast to follow) 7:05 pm

Sukkot

Sept. 24 Pizza in the Hut Sukkot Celebration 6:00 pm

Shabbat services 7:00 pm

Simchat Torah

Sept. 30 Simchat Torah Celebration (featuring music by the Klez Dispensers) 7:00 pm

GETTING TO KNOW....

Nancy & Mitch Javeline

Family:

We have 2 beautiful daughters - Joanna, who just graduated 8th grade in Montgomery - she loves her job being a Toranim at CKS Hebrew School - and Melissa, who will enter 6th grade in September and is currently writing a children's storybook.

Occupation & Education:

Mitch is a Technical Account Manager at an enterprise software company and enjoys working with customers in helping them to create a virtualized datacenter infrastructure. Mitch has a B.S. in Information Systems and Marketing and an MBA in Marketing from New York University.

Nancy is currently subbing in the Hillsborough School District. She has a 16 year teaching career in the Middlesex County Vocational System and particularly enjoys working with the special needs students. Her favorite assignment was working with the EMR population at the New Brunswick Campus. Nancy has a BA from William Patterson University in Special and Elementary education.

Community Activities:

Both Mitch and Nancy have served CKS in various capacities. Mitch spent 2 1/2 years on the CKS board of directors as Recording Secretary and as trustee. Nancy is currently active with the CKS membership committee.

Things we like to do:

Mitch - Reading, recreational cycling, following the NY Mets and the NY Jets, and I'm a news junkie - particularly business news and politics,
Nancy - cooking and baking, reading, museums, picnics, playing Scrabble

We both love travel & sightseeing, movies, concerts and taking in Broadway shows.

Favorite: Music:

Mitch - country music - particularly from the 70's, 80's and 90's - Crystal Gayle, Garth Brooks, Dolly Parton, Willie Nelson, ...

Nancy - 70's, 80's, 90's Rock - Stones, Aerosmith, Journey, Tom Petty, Queen, Cat Stevens, Linda Ronstadt, ....

("He's a little bit country; She's a little bit Rock 'n Roll")

Nancy - Anytime with my dad, especially tagging along with him to work; my Mom's homemade cookies; going to visit my grandmother in Queens; hang time with my friend Carolyn; Thanksgiving dinner; every Sunday at McDonald's - and a Stewart's root beer (hey, I was just a kid)

Travel:

Mitch - Have been to Europe (France, Italy, Spain, Portugal, England, Switzerland). My second time in Italy was our fabulous Honeymoon trip. My second trip to Paris was a company award trip that included a private tour of the Louvre, a private party on Montmartre and a private period costume party at the palace of Versailles. We took another company award trip to Hawaii, which was also great. I've also been to the Bahamas, to Canada, and to almost 40 states in the US (although many of those have been boring business travel.)

Nancy - Pre-marriage trips to Cancun, St. Thomas, St. Martin, St. John, Hawaii, London, Paris, Amsterdam and Greece. First sighting of the Acropolis sent chills through my body. Loved everything about Greece - particularly my climb to the top of Meteora. With Mitch, took that Honeymoon trip to Italy, explored the southwest US, including the Grand Canyon, Bryce Canyon and Zion Park, accompanied him on the award trips to Paris and Hawaii, went to the Pacific Northwest, New Orleans, Montreal, Vermont, Boston and of course we took the kids to Disney in Orlando.---
