Sept. 28 Erev Rosh Hashanah Service 7:00 pm

Sept. 29 Rosh Hashanah 1st Day Service (free tickets required) 9:30 am

Children's Service (concurrent with morning service) 11:00 am

Tashlikh Hike to Pike Creek (dress for hiking) Literally "casting", tashlikh is a lovely ceremony carried out on Rosh Hashanah during which we "cast away our sins" by throwing breadcrumbs into a running body of water. Here at CKS, we are fortunate enough to be able to hike on our own property to Pike Creek. This is a wonderful, short, fun, and meaningful ceremony for adult and child alike. At the conclusion of tashlikh, the shofar is blown. 4:15 pm

Sept. 30 Rosh Hashanah 2nd Day, Non-Traditional Service 9:30 am

Yom Kippur

Oct. 7 Kol Nidre Service (free tickets required) 6:00 pm

Oct. 8 Yom Kippur Morning Service (free tickets required) 9:30 am

Alternative to morning service. Meditative Walk 10:00 am. Meet at the Laurel Avenue parking lot for the Rocky Hill Canal. Casual hiking dress.

Children's Service (concurrent with morning service) 11:00 am

Yizkor Service: A memorial service on Yom Kippur that calls to mind our deceased loved ones through the recitation of special prayers, such as Mourner's Kaddish. Members at CKS have the option of listing their loved ones whose names are then read during the course of the service. Yizkor services are also traditionally held on Sukkot, Passover and Shavuot. 1:00 pm

Non-Traditional Avodah Service followed by Neilah Service. The word "Avodah" in this context refers to worship in the form of sacrifices or offerings that were performed in ancient times in the Temple in Jerusalem. In those days, the High Priest performed a special sacrifice on Yom Kippur and made a full range of confessions on behalf of all the people.

Today, naturally, we no longer make sacrifices. We still, however, have offerings to make to God, to each other, and to ourselves. As we did last year, we will hold a non-traditional Avodah service on Yom Kippur afternoon, during which you may bring in your own personal offerings – poems, stories, artifacts, songs – that convey the spirit of the High Holidays: teshuvah, return, repentance, forgiveness, and so on. 4:15 p.m.

Neilah is the final service of Yom Kippur during which our last round of confessional prayers are recited. The ark remains open and we stand (if we are able) throughout most of this deeply spiritual and moving service. Here at CKS, we dim the lights, allowing the words and music to wash over us as we turn inward one last time. The service concludes when the sun has set with a final, long shofar blast. 5:15 pm

Shofar blowing (Break Fast to follow) 6:30 pm

Sukkot

Oct. 14 Pizza in the Hut Sukkot Celebration 6:30 pm

Shabbat services 7:45 pm

Simchat Torah

Oct. 20 Simchat Torah Celebration (featuring music by the Klez Dispensers) 7:00 pm

Fourth Annual Rummage Sale

We will be holding our Fourth Annual Rummage Sale on Friday, September 16th and Sunday, September 18th from 9:00 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. (not on Saturday). As in the past, this will be an enormous sale including kitchen, household, yard, light furniture, kids' items, clothing and books. (Please, NO heavy TVs!!) Please save your 'stuff' for our sale! Our goal is to make $3000, and we need your donations and help to make this happen!

Donations will be accepted on Sunday, September 11th during Religious School, and Monday - Wednesday, September 12th - 14th from 1 to 7 p.m. at the synagogue. Other times can be arranged by emailing Debbie Gartenberg at dgart1518@gmail.com.

This is a very labor-intensive endeavor, and we need your help! Please consider helping with pricing during the week, setting up on Sunday morning, and/or selling on Friday and Sunday mornings. It is a fun event, and a great way to get to know your fellow congregants!

Remember, this summer, when you clean out your garage or basement, save your unwanted items for our upcoming CKS Rummage Sale in September!

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact anyone from the Rummage Sale Committee: Sue Krisiloff, Nancy Javeline, or Debbie Gartenberg.
